

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

One Voice Wales has previously recommended that each Council should develop complaints handling procedure which suits their particular circumstances. It should be well-publicised in material about the Council's services, such as Council's web site. Any procedure should include the basic elements of record keeping, staff receiving it should be empowered to resolve if possible or know when to pass it on if more serious, cover all services provided, easily understood, set manageable time constraints and keep the complainant informed of progress.

The advice envisages a three stage system:

Stage 1: attempted resolution by frontline staff;

Stage 2: attempted resolution by the Clerk;

Stage 3: the complaint is considered by a panel of Councillors (or possibly full Council).

In Council's where the Clerk is the sole employee then Stage 1 is redundant. The Council is recommended to approve the following procedure.

Since 1st April 2006 the Ombudsman has had responsibility for investigating complaints of maladministration against Town and Community Councils in Wales. This is separate to role of investigating allegations of misconduct against individual Councillors and focuses on the standards of service provided by the Council. The collation, analysis and resolution of complaints should be an essential element of the efficient administration of all Councils.

The definition used by the Ombudsman for a complaint is as follows:

"A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction by one or more members of the public about the Council's lack of action or about the standard of a service, whether the action was taken or the service provided by the Council itself or by a person or body acting on behalf of the Council"

In the advice issued by OVW the following are not to be regarded as a complaint:

- An initial request for a service.
- Complaints about third parties: e.g. a community group for which the Council is not responsible
- A request for an explanation of a decision
- A representation about a major policy decision e.g. setting the precept
